6. Since the number of participants will be limited, the participants will be given the topic of their choice on a first-come-first-serve basis. (In case many participating entities select the same topic, the first comers will be given priority and they will have the chance to research the topic of their choice while the second group will be asked to research another topic).
7. Participants are free to choose their medium of presentation (Arabic/English).

INFORMATION FOR TEACHERS

8. Please assure that the names submitted online are clear and of the correct spelling AS THERE WILL BE NO CHANGES IN SPELLING AFTER REGISTRATION. In the case a certain member of the team changes, please inform EEG, latest by the 1st of November, to enable the Group to prepare the necessary certifications.
9. A registration fee of AED 525/- per team (VAT inclusive) has to be submitted along with the online registration. This fee is non-refundable and every team will get a confirmation of registration only upon receiving the fee.
10. A panel of 4 bilingual judges who are eminent environmentalists and experts from the public and private sectors of the UAE will adjudicate the competition.
 - 10.1 The criteria for judging will be as follows:
 - Clarity of speech and team work 10 points
 - Originality of idea 15 points
 - Environmental impact/solution 15 points
 - Presentation of research evidence 10 points
11. On the day of the event, the students are required to know the order they are presenting in as there will be no extra time in between presentations. EEG will send the schedule of presentations to all the participants beforehand, which will be accurate as of day of its receipt. However, the timing and order of each presentation is subject to change on the day of the Competition due to unforeseen circumstances (ex. A team is late or cancels participation). On the day of the event, each team will be responsible for checking the updated schedule which we will displayed in the foyer of the event venue. Students are expected to be ready, for their presentations according to the agenda. The exact timings will be shared with all the teams one week before the event.
